RESOLUTION NO. 599-93 Re: REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON THE LONG-RANGE NEEDS OF HUMAN RELATIONS AND STAFF RESPONSE

On motion of Mr. Ewing seconded by Mrs. Fanconi, the following resolution was adopted unanimously by members present:

Resolved, That the Board of Education endorse the recommendations of the Commission on the Long-range Needs of Human Relations and request the superintendent to come back to the Board with detailed implementation plans.

<th>Human Relations Commission Recommendations</th>
<th>Staff Response</th>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. The department develop and implement human relations training programs on laws, policies, and regulations pertaining to human relations issues for administrative and supervisory personnel.</td>
<td>Agree. The Department of Human Relations will coordinate the development of training programs by working closely with all major offices including the systemwide training unit and legal services.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. The department secures training opportunities from other school system departments, governmental agencies, corporations, and institutions in the Washington area.</td>
<td>Agree. The Department of Human Relations will work with the Systemwide Training Unit which has been collaborating with the Montgomery County government to identify common training topics. As we continue to form and expand our partnerships with local universities, governmental agencies, and private corporations, identifying training opportunities will become a part of the planning process.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. The superintendent review and propose revisions to Resolution #60-79 to provide maximum flexibility for the accomplishment of the intended objectives for all professional and supporting services staff.</td>
<td>Agree. The superintendent and the executive staff will review Resolution #60-79 and make recommendations to the Board. Requirements for human relations training should be flexible enough to allow schools and offices to implement programs that are appropriate to their individual needs. The focus of human relations activities should be outcomes-based, expanded to include resolving issues at the lowest possible level, and guided by the Success for Every Student Plan. (See #7)</td>
</tr>

4. The superintendent create a position for a person with legal expertise needed to enhance MCPS compliance with the various federal, state, and local laws. Primary credentials for candidates should include knowledge of and experience with handling equity issues within a school system.

| Additional study needed. | As federal and state laws and mandates have become more complex, the demand for litigation in MCPS has increased. It is critical, therefore, that the Department of Human Relations has appropriate expertise in place as soon as possible in order to address EEO, ADA, sexual harassment and other issues. The EEO coordinator position could be reconstituted to a "compliance officer" who would have expertise in these areas. Further review of the demands for legal services in MCPS is necessary and recommendations will be made for the FY95 budget cycle (consistent with the response to recommendation #12 of the OSAE Commission Report). |

5. The superintendent direct a review of the existing practice for responding to and resolving EEO and other human relations formal complaints and consider changes to streamline the process.

| Agree. | A final review will be undertaken to ensure that formal complaints are responded to in a timely fashion and involve the appropriate staff. In some instance human relations or EEO complaints are filed through established due process procedures. When a complaint is filed directly to the Department of Human Relations, an investigation will begin and frequently include staff from other offices or schools. Additionally, training and supports will be in place to ensure resolving issues expeditiously at the lowest possible level. Every effort will be made to inform employees, students, and the community of the appropriate due process procedures when submitting a formal complaint as well as the mechanisms to resolve issues utilizing the informal process at the local level. |

<td>6. The superintendent continue the direct reporting relationship of the director of the department to the office of the superintendent.</td>
<td>Agree. The direct involvement of the superintendent's office is critical to the success of the Department of Human Relations. The impact of a comprehensive human relations program reaches every aspect of the school system and the community. Maintaining the current reporting structure ensures continued commitment and accountability to that effort.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. The superintendent develop policy which mandates establishing human relations committees in every school/unit, inclusive of staff, parents, students, and community members.</td>
<td>Agree. Policy ACA: Statement on Human Relations needs to be revised. A policy analysis of this policy and related policies will be brought to the Board for review and discussion. We support the intent of this recommendation to ensure that human relations programs and issues are addressed at the lowest possible level. Principals and managers will be asked to review the functions and structure of their existing local committees with input from students, staff, and community. These committees will be expected to address and assist with the informal resolution of issues at the local level and to plan human relations training. Existing models of human relations committees will be reviewed in order to determine effective practices. The findings and recommendations will be shared with the Board (see #3).</td>

8. The Office of Instruction and Program Development (OIPD) review and redesign the MCPS curricula to assure its inclusion of multiculturalism and its reflection of the school system's sensitivity to equity and diversity. OIPD should also establish a mechanism with which to evaluate the effectiveness of the new curricula.

Agreed. OIPD will continue reviewing and revising curriculum to ensure that multiple perspectives are represented. As materials are revised or added, training will emphasize the inclusion of multiculturalism. During the summer of 1993, principals will be invited to curriculum workshops where the development of multicultural material occurs. The Council on Instruction will continue to review all course revisions and require inclusion of multiculturalism as a part of that process. It will continue to bring the curriculum revisions to the Board for approval. A more comprehensive effort will be made to inform parents and the community of these revisions.

The need for multicultural awareness and sensitivity is broader than OIPD. By involving principals and teachers and the community in curriculum changes and training, a greater sensitivity to our diverse and multicultural clientele will occur over time. As we recognize and understand differences among ourselves, and make changes to the curriculum focusing on training on celebrating diversity, we will diminish ignorance and prejudice.
| 9. The superintendent establish a new organizational structure for the department. | Agree. The attached organizational chart reflects continue commitment to the importance of human relations. The organization allows for an improved and more responsive Human Relations Department. The three human relations advocate positions will report to the Director of Human Relations with a portion of their time assigned directly to the Office of School Administration in order to assist in resolving school and community related problems. The advocates will also spend time responding to overall community issues and to the needs of central and field office staff including but not limited to issues related to race, sexual harassment, religion, prejudice, hate/violence, etc.

The compliance officer position will facilitate improved communication with MCPS and outside counsel and will provide the support needed. As indicated in recommendation #4, further review of legal services will occur in order to determine the most effective and efficient placement of additional legal supports. |

<td>10. The department be responsible for developing, for the superintendent's approval, a comprehensive system-wide human relations program. This program should include a detailed plan for implementation with measurable outcomes.</td>
<td>Agree. A comprehensive human relations program is central to implementation of the Success for Every Student Plan. This plan will include measurable outcomes and will be shared with the Board.</td>

Re: BOARD/SUPERINTENDENT COMMENTS

1. Dr. Cheung reported that last weekend he had attended the Organization of Chinese Americans convention in New York. It is a national organization of Chinese American with the objective of promoting hope and aspirations of Chinese Americans in the United States. One of the MCPS staff was the national president. He introduced Ms. Ginny Gong who was doing a great job as president, and under her leadership they had a telecommunication with a panel in Shanghai, a panel in Hong Kong, a panel in Singapore, a panel in Taipei, a panel in Tokyo, and a panel in New York.
2. Mr. Ewing noted that the Board had received an information item about the Contemporary Issues curriculum which was scheduled to come before the Board on August 30. In September the Board would be discussing social studies curriculum, and he suggested that the Board defer action on Contemporary Issues to the September meeting. Dr. Vance agreed.

3. Mrs. Gordon said she had the opportunity to attend testimony on Senate Bill 1050, Technology in Education. Mr. Dave Hillman who had been working with MCPS for GTE, his daughter, and Mr. Rick Lane, made an excellent presentation on technology in MCPS. She was convinced that MCPS continued to provide excellent, relevant testimony. In addition to providing the testimony, she thought they had the most well organized opportunity for testimony at the local, state, or national level.

4. In regard to Contemporary Issues, Mrs. Brenneman wondered what would happen if approval was delayed until September when school started on September 1. Mrs. Gemberling explained that this was a second semester course.
