RESOLUTION NO. 667-96  Re:  STATE LEGISLATIVE AUDIT ON ENROLLMENT

On motion of Mr. Abrams and seconded by Mrs. King, the following resolution was adopted with Mr. Abrams, Dr. Cheung, Mr. Ewing, Mr. Felton, Mrs. Gordon, and Mrs. King voting in the affirmative; Ms. Gutiérrez voting in the negative:

Resolved, That the Board of Education authorize staff to take a three-prong approach: (1) utilize internal auditors to concentrate on verification of student enrollment and confirmation data in student files that meet the requirements of MSDE for both attendance and immunization as well as other factors looked at by the state legislative auditors; (2) use external auditors to expand the annual audit in relation to internal controls and issues surrounding electronic attendance data; and (3) explore collaboration with corporate partners with financial or staff assistance; and be it further

Resolved, That parts one and three above will be completed within the next two to four weeks in order to meet deadlines.

Mr. Ewing made the following statement for the record: “It should be clear that the intent is, not merely to do these kinds of verification efforts, but also to take appropriate corrective action based on the findings, including not only changing the way we take attendance but also engaging in appropriate training and other actions as may be necessary to ensure that we are in full compliance.”

Ms. Gutiérrez stated for the record: “I strongly recommend that the school system responds to ensuring that the record will be absolutely in compliance by September 30, 1996.”
Re: CLASS SIZE — RESEARCH AND ALTERNATIVES

Dr. Vance invited to the table the following people: Dr. Marlene Hartzman, director of the Department of Educational Accountability, and Dr. John Larson, coordinator of the Research and Evaluation Unit.

A review of recent studies clearly makes a case that significantly lowers class size to 15-17 students in Grades K-3 improves student achievement. The findings have been so clear that 11 states are mandating implementation of this standard as part of their Goals 2000 school reform effort. Other research presented were the findings from the Tennessee study (STAR), verification of other research, and alternative initiatives such as technology, block scheduling, tutoring models, and experienced teachers.

Board members were appreciative of both papers condensing the research and alternatives regarding the effects of class size on student achievement. It was apparent from the research that class size reduction by two to three students per class has little to no impact on student performance which is contrary to the popular belief of parents.

Beginning with the CRT assessment, MCPS is identifying alternative teaching methods that promote greater student achievement within high performing schools. The Department of Educational Accountability in cooperation with the Office of School Administration will analyze patterns between performance and teaching models. Schools with high educational loads have additional resources, but class size also needs to be examined in relation to effective teaching strategies.

How children learn needs to be assessed in relation to class size and learning skills, content material, and student behavior and attitudes. Ethnic and cultural diversity can also affect student performance. Individual student profiles will help the school system to design educational strategies that could include smaller class size, parental involvement, visual aides, and technology.

One element of smaller class size is teacher morale. Reducing class size to the numbers reflected in the Tennessee study would cost an extraordinary amount in terms of capital costs and teachers’ salaries. Therefore, the sensible strategy would focus on alternative initiatives, and the upcoming budget should reflect whatever resources that are needed for this long-range strategy.

As soon as possible, data should be developed on what alternative strategies have been effective, and what options and cost implications are associated with those strategies. A phased-in approach that brings in all the factors in an integrated fashion will afford a solution to the class size dilemma. MCPS has been effective with pilot programs with goals and assessments, and class size or alternative strategies could be piloted by a few schools.
Mr. Ewing reported that the basic purpose of the conference was to explore the question with some 80 county leaders of how the community can sustain the excellence of the school system well into the 21st century. The conference participants achieved a high degree of consensus on the strategies to achieve that goal, and there was a commitment from the attendees to work in collaboration to sustain educational excellence in Montgomery County. The groups addressed themes of the population explosion with changing needs and diversity, address demands on staff, problems of disruptive youth, importance of academic achievement for all students, development of life-long learning strategies, uses of technology in instruction, and the school as the center of the community. It is important to find the resources in the community to meet all these needs and the collaboration now and throughout the decades ahead with all stakeholders in the community to address all the issues identified in the conference. The next steps will include a report of the conference will be developed and distributed throughout the county, a video will be generated, and forums will be held.

Dr. Vance discussed the topics on (1) individual school results on the SAT and intervention strategies; (2) the good response from volunteers for the Network Weekend; (3) 97 MCPS students named as semifinalists in the National Merit Scholarships; 15 MCPS students have been named National Hispanic Scholars; and, (4) the dedication of the Gaithersburg High School track and field stadium in honor of John Harvell.

Mr. Ewing commented on the SAT scores in relation to the superintendent’s recommendations and suggested a further analysis of randomly selected African-American students and courses taken prior to the SAT.

Mr. Abrams remarked on the (1) SAT scores for African-American students and suggested looking at a four or five-year comparison; (2) if there is something in individual performances that is skewing test results and creating an illusion of a problem; and, (3) clarification of the definition of the activity fee as it relates to credited courses.

Mr. Felton commented on (1) the SAT scores and a sense of accountability and support in the school system; and, (2) a couple of Saturday schools that have opened this school year.

Dr. Cheung mentioned (1) the SAT scores and the fact that many African-American students have done very well; (2) that where those students have not done well, what happened and how can solutions be designed to enhance achievement; and, (3) the individual student profiles to have accurate information and useful information about each student.

Mrs. King brought up (1) SAT scores and how many students have taken the test and when they enrolled in MCPS; and (2) the priority of excellence in education and not placing blame on anyone or thing.

Ms. Gutiérrez observed that (1) the SAT scores and the superintendent’s quick and aggressive action plan; (2) even though Hispanic scores are rising, there is a total lack of significant data on Latino students; and, (3) the process and timeline in the Capital Improvement Program budget decision-making process.

On motion of Mr. Ewing and seconded by Mr. Abrams, the following resolution was placed on the table:

WHEREAS, there is an initiative that will appear on the November 5, 1996 ballot as Question C which, if approved by the voters, would have the effect of drastically reducing revenues that can only result in dramatic cuts to Montgomery County education funding in future years, at a time when MCPS is facing rapid growth in student enrollment and critical needs continue to be unmet for lack of critical funds; and

WHEREAS, also appearing on the ballot, as Question D, will be an initiative to change the County Charter to permit the County Council to adopt a final operating budget for the school system in any given fiscal year that exceeds the final spending affordability guidelines, without requiring a super-majority vote as is now required for such adoption. Re:  RE-INSTATEMENT OF TRANSPORTATION SERVICES

On motion of Ms. Gutiérrez and seconded by Mr. Ewing seconded, the following resolution was placed on the table:

WHEREAS, In accordance with the Maryland Constitution and its implementing legislation which requires Local Education Agencies (LEAs) to provide a free public education to all age-appropriate students residing within their local education district, the Montgomery County Public Schools (MCPS) have over many years provided bus transportation to schools for students who live outside the prescribed walking boundaries established by Board of Education Policy EEA, Pupil Transportation; and

WHEREAS, On February 28, the Board of Education submitted its FY97 annual operating budget request to the County Executive and County Council for their funding approval, which included funding for school transportation services designated under Budget Category 7- Transportation; and

WHEREAS, Subsequently, on May 28, 1996, the superintendent made recommendations to the Board of Education for an $8.2 million or 16% of which affected school transportation funding; and

WHEREAS, On 11, 1996, majority of Board adopted Resolution 413-96, the final FY97 Operating Budget, which included funding for school transportation services designated under Budget Category 7- Transportation, represented among other previous reductions:
1) the deferred procurement computer-assisted ($189,286); 3) an in the walking school students by .25 miles, from 1.75 to 2.0 miles ($197,143);

WHEREAS, reductions are addition to increase in rate charged field services (from to revenue to Category 71 (Field Trip Fund) by $177,500; and

WHEREAS, On 9, 1996, recommendation of superintendent, the adopted 485-96 to Policy EEA to conform with budget action on June 1996, by extending the distance for school students to 2.0 miles, change to reflected in draft policy it is Board for full discussion;

WHEREAS, Since start of FY97 school and the implementation an extended walking distance high school ts, the Board has become acutely of the serious impact the safety well-being many high students, due potentially dangerous posed by lack of sidewalks, increased crossings of high-traffic volume roads, the early darkness in and the passage through areas and isolated parks, among others; Now therefore, be it

Resolved That the request the to direct MCPS Division of Transportation proceed as quickly as with the of bus transportation services to those students living beyond the 1.75-mile maximum walking distance; and be it further

Resolved, That the superintendent review other MCPS operating budget categories from which funds might be available for a transfer to Category 7 to cover the costs of re-instatement of a 1.75-mile maximum walking distance; and, if extra funds are available, prepare a resolution for a FY97 Categorical Transfer Request for approval by the Board and its subsequent submission to the County Council, in accordance with the provisions for transfers; and be it further

Resolved, That, if the superintendent finds that MCPS operating funds are not available for transfer to Category 7, the Board of Education will submit a FY97 Supplemental Emergency Appropriation for Transportation requesting the County Council to approve the funding to re-instate a 1.75-mile maximum walking distance for high school students ($216,857, including fringe benefits).

Ms. Gutiérrez made the following statement for the record: I have some very brief comments on the resolution. I think that it does spell out clearly the reasons and the recommendations are open ended to the extent the superintendent, if the Board passes this motion, would look to see how he might be able to find the funding to reinstate the high school walking distance. I purposely did not specify an action as I feel the superintendent is the best person able to look at the school system’s budget and propose to the Board a recommendation. The only other point I would like to make is that we have certainly heard from a large number of the community on this issue. I think we have heard compelling arguments and reasons why the Board should reconsider this decision. My personal reason why I thought it was important to raise it and bring it before the Board, is one that to me there is clearly an increased safety risk that we have created for our students. That increased safety risk in relation to the savings that we have acquired ($250,000) does not seem to me appropriate for us to maintain. By performing a very simple risk analysis, there is a formula of probability of an accident occurring times the exposure plus whatever impacting factors to increase that risk. We increased the time to exposure by extending the earliness of the walk and the duration of the walk. It is important because we are not talking an isolated 1/4 mile. We are talking about a 1/4 mile in addition to 1.75 miles. At the same time, it was compounded by the decision to standardize beginning times for high schools that changed the start to an earlier time. I think some of those external impacting factors such as the darkness and length of the walk clearly could be determined on a mathematical basis to increase the risk and exposure. That is one piece of additional data.
