Re: BOARD/SUPERINTENDENT COMMENTS

Mr. Mannes congratulated the school system’s staff on their response to the Hurricane Sandy. He stated that in the next two months he will be visiting several schools to organize an educational think tank and develop advocacy tips within the school as well as to the Board level. Also, he announced a new student web site with a daily post on what he is doing with his colleagues.

Mr. Durso commended the superintendent on his State of the Schools address. It was a positive step forward for the school system. There was an MCEA function recognizing school psychologists. Our psychologists have larger caseloads than other neighboring jurisdictions. Also, he commended Ms. Dixon and the dedication of Paint Branch High School. He commended Mr. Cohen and Seneca Valley High School on how they handled the recent death of a young lady who was recently killed in auto accident. Finally, he was pleased with the positive comments on the shadow event of the executive team. In the future it could be broadened to county council and Board members since it illustrates schools and young people in their day-to-day life.

Mr. Kauffman associated himself with the comments of his colleagues. He commended on Paint Branch High School and the dedication of the community in advocacy for the new school. All the cluster coordinators have testified over the years, and the delays were frustrating. At the recent hearing, the Board listened to people advocating for their capital needs; the Board has to balance a lot of needs. The Paint Branch community was very respectful of the process.

Dr. Docca wanted to thank all the people who worked on the State of the Schools address. She attended the vigil at Seneca Valley High School, and the family is very appreciative of the help the school has provided. She had been notified that Laytonsville Elementary School sponsored a walk for the Wells/Robertson House in Gaithersburg and raised $3,500. The Wells/Robertson House provides transitional housing for homeless men and women who have undergone alcohol/drug treatment or received other professional counseling and want to break the cycle of homelessness. The program helps residents learn how to be self-sufficient, working and functioning members of society. There was a Latino Dance Competition was at Strathmore which helps students identify with the culture. She highlighted the career of Joe Monte and his work with MCPS. Mr. Eric Davis was chosen by AASA as the assistant principal of the year in the USA.

Ms. Brandman pointed out that Dr. Docca was recognized by the Montgomery County Human Rights Hall of Fame for her advocacy and has been an unrelenting champion for education.

Mrs. O’Neill congratulated Dr. Docca since her dedicated to children is extraordinary. She noted that Mr. Kauffman and Mr. Barclay had been reelected to the Board of Education. She also thanked Ms. Berthiaume for her service to the children of Montgomery County.

Mr. Barclay joined his colleagues in congratulating Dr. Docca on her award. Dr. Docca attends many meetings and is very involved in the community. He congratulated Mr. Kauffman and Ms. Smundrowski for their elections. The election process is very interesting since it forces candidates to go out, speak to people, put forward your case, and it forces candidates to listen to people. He thought it illustrated the need for the Board to do a lot more listening since it is important to know what people are thinking.

Ms. Brandman associated herself with her colleagues’ comments. She personally thanked Dr. Docca since she taught Ms. Brandman so much in Montgomery County and the state of Maryland.

Dr. Starr started his comments by thanking Mr. Bowers and staff for their work during and after Hurricane Sandy. He went on the comment on the (1) State of the Schools; (2) dedication at Paint Branch High School; (3) election of Board members; (4) last meeting with Ms. Berthiaume and her dedication to children in Montgomery County; (5) community engagement; (6) graduation rate; (7) “What’s the BIG Idea” podcast; (8) student towns halls; (9) Frontiers in Science; and (10) Siemens competition.

Re: UPDATE ON STATE REGULATORY CHANGES: SUSPENSIONS

Dr. Starr commented that the Maryland State Board of Education (State Board) proposed new discipline regulations, Code of Maryland Administrative Regulations (COMAR) 13A.08.01.11, which reflect both a rehabilitative philosophy and a connection to comprehensive school reform. The proposed regulations are designed to reduce the number of long-term out-of-school suspensions for non-violent incidents, to eliminate disproportionate suspensions of minority students and students with disabilities, and to ensure that all students receive appropriate educational services during suspension or expulsion within identified timelines for the disciplinary process.

During the past two years, Montgomery County Public Schools (MCPS) actively provided feedback and recommendations to the State Board. MCPS administrators served on a panel to discuss the key disciplinary concerns and provided public comments. In addition, written testimony was submitted by the superintendent of schools, the Montgomery County Association of Administrators and Principals (MCAAP), and the Montgomery County Council of Parent Teacher Associations. Although MCPS has one of the lowest suspension rates in the state, the intent of the proposed regulations represent issues that MCPS has actively attended to for years.

MCPS recognizes the importance and is in agreement with the explicit intent of the proposed discipline regulations. MCPS is committed to providing a world-class education where core instruction weaves academic with social-emotional learning in a safe and respectful environment with all students actively engaged. Although the proposed regulatory changes will require modification of some of the current disciplinary procedures, our work aligns with the proposed suspension regulations to prepare all Maryland students to become career and college ready.

This provides an overview of the proposed regulatory changes, MCPS processes and strategies, as well as implications and challenges that address current resources and timelines. MCPS' focus on professional development, interventions, and parent and community engagement are the center for implementing changes in practice. A Suspension Regulation Implementation Team will be formed to gather input from stakeholders and provide guidance on how to best operationalize the regulations.

Implications and Challenges
The proposed regulations will necessitate a coordinated effort among MCPS schools and central offices, parents, and the community. Policies, regulations, and practices will need to be aligned with the new regulations. Additional and or alternative strategies must be identified for suspended students in home schools and alternative programs.

Schools will need assistance with identifying alternatives to suspension that are equitable and not arbitrary. Monthly suspension data will need to align with regulatory changes for reporting suspensions. Decentralizing disciplinary decision making around suspension and expulsion prioritizes the need to identify clear processes for continuous and appropriate instruction. The new regulations will challenge schools to do this with limited financial and personnel resources. In addition, MCPS Regulation JFA-RA, Student Rights and Responsibilities, will be revised to prohibit the continued use of mandatory (nondiscretionary) consequences for the following five offenses.

- Evidence of intent to distribute or distribution of controlled dangerous substances, MCPS Regulation COF-RA, Intoxicants on MCPS Property
- Possession of bombs, or facsimile, or bomb threat, MCPS Regulation EKC-RA, Bomb Threats/Explosive Devices
- Possession of firearms, including starter guns, MCPS Regulation COE-RA, Weapons
- Weapons used to cause bodily harm, MCPS Regulation COE-RA, Weapons
- Violent physical attack on a student or staff member
With an emphasis on keeping students in school and providing continuous educational services, it is clear that long-term suspensions and expulsions may only be used as last resort options. Further collaboration and cooperation will need to take place to provide proactive alternatives to suspension while maintaining the safety of our schools and students.

In alignment with our expected practices and protocol for providing student work, the proposed regulations mandate that suspended students must be provided with daily assignments (which must be returned and graded weekly), or the student must be placed in some form of alternative program. The new state regulations dictate that work must be graded by the teacher giving the assignment. The principal must identify and appoint a staff member to coordinate and monitor the services provided for students serving out-of–school suspensions, including a documented weekly contract.

Suspensions and Investigative Processes will be updated according to the new suspension terminology. For suspensions exceeding 10 days or expulsions, the appeal process must be completed by the tenth day, or the student will be permitted to return to school on day 11 unless the superintendent of schools or his designee determines it is unsafe to do so. Conduct must be determined to be violent, dangerous, or a threat to the safety of the school. We will need to examine how to complete this entire process within 10 days while ensuring a student’s due process rights and determine which incidents might require more than 10 days to complete. Currently, with the exception of students with disabilities, the process takes more than 10 days as we need to accommodate parents’ work schedules; the availability of attorney’s retained by parents, school and pupil services staff availability, and the number of cases. The superintendent of schools has the authority to intercede to continue the suspension beyond 10 days depending on the circumstances.

The Montgomery County Board of Education (Board) must conduct a hearing within 30 days of an appeal being filed in discipline cases and must render a decision within 10 days of conducting the appeal hearing. The Suspension Regulation Implementation Team will need to establish a process to assure that suspension/expulsion appeals to the Board will complete the appeals process within the mandated time allotted by MSDE.

As the proposed regulations are designed to address the statewide suspension disparities issue with Black or African American, Hispanic/Latino, and special education students, school-based and central office staff members will need to continue to examine suspension infraction practices, especially those suspension infractions that have discretion in terms of consequences. The new regulations indicate that if there is a disparity in suspension data for any minority group, the local agency must submit a plan and eliminate the disparity within three years. While we appreciate this three-year goal, MCPS, MCAAP, and others provided testimony to the State Board expressing concern about how realistic this expectation is for local school districts without benefit of the underlying structures to systemically support the mandated changes.
The State Board will be accepting written comments from the community during the open period of November 2 through December 2, 2012. At a minimum, we will advocate for an implementation date no earlier than July 1, 2013. This will permit districts time to put best practices in place to meet student needs and to be in compliance with this state regulation.

Alignment with System Priorities
Inherent to procedural changes will be the need to support staff members and schools to best meet the needs of our students at risk for suspension. We will need to review our current professional development, prevention and intervention strategies, and how we work with families and community partners. Each area of focus will better inform and provide meaningful training and practice to address all of our students. No one single action or practice will address the requirements of this regulation. Rather, this is a shared responsibility that must be embraced by staff members, students, parents, and the community.

Professional Development for staff members is a focus area aligned with the belief that continued collaboration and skill building is essential to provide effective and engaging instruction. Professional development needs extend from instructional practices to deepening understanding of equity issues, establishing and maintaining a positive school climate, to a deep understanding of both the research and intent of the procedural changes to the actual regulations. This approach aligns with the renewed emphasis on professional development. Staff members will need to develop increased awareness and skill around cultivating school climates that are inclusive and not exclusive. Staff members must be prepared to engage differently with students in order to yield different suspension rates.

Prevention/Intervention aligns with the emphasis on core instruction and Curriculum 2.0, which embeds essential social-emotional strategies to ensure student engagement. Evidenced-based prevention and intervention strategies that supplement core instruction are key to providing meaningful alternatives to suspension. Existing interventions are in place that show promise for our students. Prevention and intervention frameworks such as PBIS demonstrate positive outcomes that correlate with increased engagement and academic achievement. The CPS process informs the use of specific academic and behavioral interventions to support individual students.

Parent and Community Engagement are critical to addressing the whole child and having student success go beyond the boundaries of a school day. The newly formed Office of Community Engagement and Partnerships will help to further enhance our networks of support for students and families, often extending beyond the traditional school day and year. School and central office Professional Learning Communities provide an ideal forum for the deep level of data analysis discussion, action planning, and implementation necessary to change beliefs and practices.

Conclusion and Next Steps
The work to reduce suspensions, which integrates effective instruction, student learning, social-emotional learning, equitable practices, and the intentional involvement of community partners, is ongoing and complex. The implementation of educational research outlining best practices is at the core of how MCPS functions. MCPS has made gains with closing the achievement gap and reducing suspension rates, yet we are well aware of our disproportionate suspension data and the need to address the whole child for meaningful impact. The current systems in place will continue to inform our work and lay the groundwork for establishing the necessary changes that transform practice. For example, current data monitoring systems, supports, and infrastructure will serve as tools for staff to meet requirements and timelines. Meeting our professional development needs, implementing prevention models and intervention strategies, and engagement with families and community partners will facilitate our shared responsibility to serve all students and ensure their future success.

The proposed regulations will require modifications to our current policies, regulations, and practices. MCPS currently is taking steps in preparation for the adoption of the proposed regulatory changes through professional development, identification of successful practices/interventions, and parent and community engagement efforts. We also have practical concerns regarding timing and cost, along with the lack of key components related to implementation. Given ongoing fiscal concerns and the reductions in school and central office staffing, it will be very challenging to meet these requirements; however, we are committed to providing a world-class education with the appropriate supports in place for all students to become college and career ready.

Re: DISCUSSION

The Board members were interested in the following aspects of the regulation:

1. Mr. Barclay was interested in how the issue of cultural competency will play into training as the school system deals with suspensions. The system has to know the students to serve them.
2. Dr. Docca supported school staff visiting families to establish a relationship with the family and student in an effort to reduce suspensions.
3. Dr. Docca thought a teacher course on culture competency could help strengthen the Skillful Teacher.
4. Mrs. O'Neill noted that MCPS has been working on disproportionality, and MCPS has forced the conversation across the state. Students who are out of school are not learning; high suspensions lead to a high dropout rate. There is important and critical to look at root causes for suspensions.
5. Mr. Barclay reviewed the percentages of suspensions, and he thought it was important for the school system to develop programs to help students and their families who are in crisis.
6. Mr. Barclay asked about Sharp Street and the continued funding by MCPS. Is there an alternative for parents and students?
7. Mr. Barclay asked about suspended students and what happens with young people outside of the school. Is there a liaison for suspended students to work with the teacher to ensure work is received and graded? Where does Home and Hospital Teaching fit into the picture?

8. Dr. Docca noted that this discussion is also a budget and staffing issue. There is a process of conferring with the teacher before a student comes back into the classroom. It helps the Board to understand what goes on before a suspension and an idea of the number of families being worked with.

9. Mr. Kauffman asked for data demonstrating the effectiveness of PBIS. How many schools have PBIS? Is there evidence documenting less disproportionality using PBIS?

10. Mr. Brandman thought a strategic priority was to recognize the signs of student behavior in order to avoid student suspensions. Some of the conversation needs to be on interventions.

11. Ms. Brandman pointed out that the regulations are still a proposal, and the school system should submit comments to the State Board on things that could be a stumbling block. There is a serious commitment to those suspended, and there needs to be a balance. What are the implications regarding timeframes, accountability, and the immediate impact on school systems? MCPS has not lost its commitment to reduce or eliminate suspensions. However, there are challenges that the State Board needs to be aware of before moving forward.

12. Mr. Barclay thought there needed to be a phase-in period after data collection. It is not clear when the regulations take effect.

Re: MONTHLY FINANCIAL REPORT

Mr. Larry Bowers, chief operating officer, reported that this financial report reflects the actual financial condition of Montgomery County Public Schools (MCPS) as of September 30, 2012, and projections through June 30, 2013, based on program requirements and estimates made by primary and secondary account managers. At this time, revenues have a projected surplus of $350,000 and expenses have a projected surplus of $10,500,000.

Due to Fiscal Year (FY) 2011 comprehensive expenditure restrictions, MCPS ended the year with an expenditure surplus. The FY 2012 Operating Budget included a fund balance of $17.0 million of the total savings as a source of appropriation, leaving a fund balance of $11.9 million. This balance, together with the FY 2012 expenditure and revenue surplus of $28.6 million, equals $40.5 million that will be available to fund future operating budgets. The County Council used $17 million of the fund balance as a source of revenue for the FY 2013 Operating Budget, leaving an available balance of $23.5 million. My expectation is that the available fund balance will be used for appropriation over several years to avoid any sudden increase in the need for local contribution to replace fund balance as a revenue source. Staff will continue to closely monitor both revenues and expenditures

1. Maryland law governs the disposal of real property by local boards of education.

   a) Subject to the approval of the state superintendent of schools, local boards of education shall transfer grounds, school sites, or buildings no longer needed for school purposes to the County Council.

   b) The State Board of Public Works, by rule and regulation, can require that the proceeds from the sale, lease, or disposal of school buildings constructed primarily with state funds after February 1, 1971, be utilized solely as a part of the state funding of future school buildings within the subdivision in which the disposal occurred.

2. Board property will be disposed of as follows:

   a) Real Property — Buildings and Grounds

      (1) Disposal

      In the event that any Board real property is considered to have no further use for school system purposes, the superintendent of schools shall make a recommendation to the Board for disposition. The recommendation will include the rationale for the proposal, an estimate of the market value of the property, and the identification of the amount and year of state appropriations for construction and/or improvements of buildings on the site.

      (2) Easements and Rights-of-Way

      The granting of easements and rights-of-way requested by other public agencies and utility firms in the public interest shall be by Board action upon the recommendation of the superintendent of schools.

      (1) The superintendent of schools will effect the trade-in of other than real property and equipment at the time bids are invited for replacement. The superintendent of schools is authorized to effect the direct sale of items which have no trade-in value nor significant use to the instructional or support programs.
(2) Requested authorization for the disposition of obsolete school books by sale or transfer to such agencies as may have use for these books is hereby approved, it being understood that any transfer to an agency would be at no cost to the Board.

RESOLUTION NO. 505-12  Re:  ITEM OF LEGISLATION

On motion of Mrs. O’Neill and seconded by Dr. Docca, the following resolution was adopted unanimously by members present:

Resolved, That the Board of Education takes no position on MC 1-13 Montgomery County - Board of Education Districts - Town of Kensington in One District. During last fall’s special legislative session, the boundaries of the Montgomery County Board of Education five resident districts were redrawn. An unintended consequence of the new District 3/District 4 boundary has emerged regarding voting precincts in the Town of Kensington. Title 33 (Board of Elections), subtitle 15.02.02 of the Code of Maryland Regulations states a precinct must lie “wholly within a district” with no distinction made between an election and resident district. Because the BOE District 3/District 4 boundary now runs through the Town of Kensington, the Board of Elections divided the Town of Kensington into 2 voting precincts. Kensington residents prefer to continue their long standing tradition of voting in one location. Therefore, this bill has been introduced to redraw the District 3/District 4 boundary to accomplish that goal.

RESOLUTION NO. 506-12  Re:  ITEM OF LEGISLATION

On motion of Mr. Barclay and seconded by Mr. Kauffman, the following resolution was adopted unanimously by members present:

Resolved, That the Board of Education opposes MC 7-13 Montgomery County Board of Education – Membership. Current law that requires Maryland school systems with more than 100,000 students to have at least a nine member Board of Education, except for Montgomery County. This bill eliminates that exception by adding two at-large members. Additionally, the bill converts the five existing Board of Education (BOE) resident districts into five election districts. Board member terms would remain staggered with four members (two at-large and District 2 and District 4 members) elected in the presidential election cycle and five members (two at-large and District 1, District 3, and District 5 members) elected in the gubernatorial election cycle. During the 2000 legislative session, a 16-member Montgomery County School Board Composition Task Force was legislatively authorized to study the authority, size, composition and responsibilities of the Montgomery County Board of Education. The Task Force discussed both adding two additional members to the Board of Education as well as converting resident districts to election districts. The Task Force rejected both concepts citing no immediate benefit to increased size as well as concern that electing Board of Education members only by voters in their district, rather than countywide, could lead to parochialism.

RESOLUTION NO. 507-12 Re: ITEM OF LEGISLATION

On motion of Mrs. O’Neill and seconded by Dr. Docca, the following resolution was adopted unanimously by members present:

Resolved, That the Board of Education takes no position on MC 8-13, Montgomery County – Board of Education – Compensation. This bill would increase the annual compensation of Montgomery County Board of Education members from $18,500 to $25,000. The Board of Education president would continue to receive an additional $4,000 annual compensation. During the 2000 legislative session, the 16-member Montgomery County School Board Composition Task Force was legislatively authorized to study the authority, size, composition and responsibilities of the Montgomery County Board of Education. In discussing compensation, the Task Force identified several key issues including comparable compensation with other County boards and commissions as well the opportunity for any citizen, regardless of employment or income to be able to run for the Board. As a result, the Task Force recommended that compensation for Board members be increased from $12,000 to $18,500 annually. At that time, there had been no Board of Education member compensation increase since 1986.
