ESOL Transition Counselors (ETCs):

* SOS Signs of Suicide*
  - A student-led club model in which teens are trained and empowered to promote school-wide social, emotional, and behavioral health.
  - Focuses on prevention, intervention, and education to prevent suicide attempts and deaths.
  - Used in high schools with a student/caregiver learning program.

School-Based ESOL Counselors (SBECs):

* School Based Health Centers (SBHCs):*
  - A best practice youth suicide prevention program that provides comprehensive, coordinated health care to adolescents.
  - Helps with questions or concerns that may arise throughout development.

School Community-based Youth Services:*

* Behavioral Health Partners:*
  - Provide an integrated process for meeting children and their families' needs through care coordination.

* JSSA:*
  - Jewish Social Service Agency provides services to support well-being, including mental health and counseling, education, special needs services, and more.

* SCYS:*
  - Specialized Community Youth Services offers programs in the public schools, the district court, local schools, and other settings.

* BHC Behavioral Health Partners:*
  - Offers in-home support, hospice and nursing care, and social services.

* Behavioral Health Partners:*
  - Focus on positive youth development and health education experiences.

* TWC Thriving Germantown:*
  - A project designed to harness the power of peer social networks to address social determinants of health.

* Substantive Use Prevention and Resiliency Education (SCYS):*
  - A service that helps to prevent first-time substance use and possession incidents.
  - Includes gang involvement, poverty, and pressure to engage in substance use.

* Forest Oak MS:*
  - Provides support to all students, schoolwide.

* Argyle MS:*
  - Helps with the cultural environment while helping them stay meaningfully connected.

* Flask Mill ES:*
  - Offers programs that assist English Language Learners specifically at the High School level.

* Banneker, Benjamin MS:*
  - Serves and supports more than 31,000 individuals annually.

* Whitman, Walt HS:*
  - Helps you with questions or concerns that may arise throughout development.

* Wells, Hallie MS:*
  - Provides programs that assist English Language Learners specifically at the High School level.

* Lee, Colonel E. Brooke MS:*
  - Helps with questions or concerns that may arise throughout development.