Office of the Principal

August 2010

Dear Parents:

Each Montgomery County Public School is required to have a written local discipline code that is reviewed annually.

The county and local school policies require parents to share responsibility for their children's behavior at school. This means letting children know what you expect of them at school, coming to school for conferences, and helping children understand that rules must be made and enforced for the good of all children.

The school staff must understand children's needs and meet them insofar as possible. We must be fair, firm and consistent in applying the local discipline code. By working together, Bells Mill will continue to be a safe, happy, productive school for your children.

Attached is a copy of Bells Mill's discipline policy that has been discussed in each classroom. Please discuss it with your child at home and return the tear-off form to your child's teacher.

Sincerely,

Jerri B. Oglesby
Principal

Discipline Policy 2010-2011

PHILOSOPHY

We believe that the most important function of our school is learning. Our goal is to provide a stimulating, pleasant, and educational atmosphere at Bells Mill Elementary School. The purpose of discipline is to strengthen behaviors that will enable the child to grow and appropriately cope with similar experiences in the future.

Bells Mill's discipline policy is geared toward this goal of learning. The policy is designed to reflect a balance between the responsibilities and rights of the individual and the group and to inform students, staff, and parents/guardians of the expectations for behavior at school.

In order to have effective management in the educational organization at Bells Mill, there are four criteria that need to be followed to bring about the consistency and fairness we are seeking in dealing with children's behavior. They are:

RESPECT AND RESPONSIBILITY FOR ONESELF

All children will try to avoid situations that could bring about physical or mental harm to themselves.

RESPECT AND CARING FOR THE RIGHTS OF OTHERS

Each child will avoid situations that could bring about physical harm to others.
Each child will show respect towards others in words and actions.

RESPECTFUL AND RESPONSIBLE GROUP BEHAVIOR

The children will enable other students in the group to pursue their educational experiences without interferences.

RESPECTFUL AND TRUSTWORTHY ATTITUDES TOWARD PROPERTY

Children will use materials and property in a manner in which they were intended to be used.

Hopefully, through this discipline policy, we can help children mature into happy, self-disciplined, and self-reliant children capable of behaving in an appropriate manner.

Together Everyone Achieves More
