Parent-Teacher Conferences: By mid November, teachers should have met with you to discuss your child's progress in school. The conference gives you a chance to talk with your child's teacher about your child. When parents and teachers talk with each other, each person can share important information about the child's academic progress, talents and needs. Here are a few tip to help you.

Before the Conference

- Ask your child how he/she feels about school and if he/she has any questions
- Prepare a list of 3 to 5 things you want to share with the teacher and 3 to 5 questions to ask during the conference.
- Think about ways you would like to be involved in your child's learning so that you can share them with the teacher

During the Conference

- Be on time or early
- Take notes
- Listen to what the teacher has to say and ask the most important questions first

After the Conference

- Talk about the conference with your child
- Talk about the positive points and be direct about problems
- Keep in touch with the teacher during the school year

Eureka Math Curriculum Key Shifts: Eureka Math is a complete, PreK through Grade 12 curriculum aligned with the Common Core State Standards (CCSS). Teaching to the rigor of the CCSS involves significant instructional shifts, or what Eureka calls, Key Shifts in Mathematics. As teachers implement the new curriculum, they will experience these key shifts (or growing pains) and discover that the greater focus is on teaching fewer topics. Rather than racing to cover many topics, in a mile-wide, inch deep curriculum, the standards ask teachers to significantly narrow and deepen the way time and energy are spent in the classroom. This means, the instructional approach to teaching and learning will look and sound differently. As students and teachers are acclimating to Eureka Math, it is not uncommon that grades on assessments might be lower as students gain strong foundations and deepen their understanding of procedural skill, concepts and fluency. As teachers and students continue to move forward, it's anticipated that all involved will make the necessary adjustments to meet the expectations that the implementation of the standards require. During parent-teacher conferences, teacher will spend time talking to you about the new curriculum, sharing student work and providing tips on how to help your child at home. If you have questions or need clarification, please do not hesitate to ask your child's teacher or reach out to Kerry Bulcavage, our math content coach. We are here to support you and your child!

PTA News from Mr. Mieh

The PTA wants to give a huge shout-out to all the families and staff who helped make our 3rd annual Cocoa Run such a success! We met our fundraising goal of $3000 and had over 100 students participating. The beautiful weather also helped. This all goes back into our school community with staff appreciation, cultural arts assemblies, teacher mini-grants, the pumpkin patch, and other events. Our advocacy efforts seem to be paying off. Burnt Mills is one of 2 elementary schools specifically recommended by Dr. Smith for modernization. The BOE meeting on November 5 brought out at least 70 Burnt Mills supporters! We are still not over the finish line, however. The Board will need to approve us and then it goes over to the county council for funding. We need to keep the pressure on for this dream to become a reality. Our next PTA meeting is Tuesday December 3rd at 7 PM. Child care for school-age children is provided by Horizon. We hope to see you there!

MCPS Seeking Feedback on 2020–2021 School Year Calendar Scenarios: During the regular business meeting on Tuesday, October 8, the Board of Education reviewed calendar scenarios for the 2020–2021 school year. As a result of legislative action in last spring’s Maryland General Assembly, school districts in Maryland have the authority again to start school before Labor Day and end the school year after June 15th. As a result, MCPS has developed three calendar scenarios that reflect different start and end dates for School Year 2020–2021. To view the draft calendar scenarios, please visit www.montgomeryschoolsmd.org/calendar/proposed-calendar-2020-21.aspx

All draft scenarios for the calendar include: 182 student instructional days; Full spring break; Full professional day for grading and planning at the end of the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd quarters; and possible make-up days both during the school year and extending the school year. The Board is seeking feedback on the calendar options in the comment box on the website. The Board is scheduled to adopt a final school calendar later this year.

MCPS Solicita Opiniones sobre los Escenarios Propuestos para el Calendario del Ciclo Escolar 2020–2021: Durante su reunión regular de trabajo el pasado 8 de octubre, el Consejo de Educación revisó los escenarios de calendario propuestos para el ciclo escolar 2020–2021. Como resultado de una acción legislativa en la Asamblea General de Maryland durante la primavera pasada, los distritos escolares de Maryland tienen nuevamente la autoridad para iniciar las clases antes del Día del Trabajo (Labor Day) y concluir el ciclo escolar después del 15 de junio. Como resultado, MCPS ha desarrollado tres escenarios de calendario que reflejan diferentes fechas de inicio y finalización del ciclo escolar 2020–2021. Para ver el borrador de los escenarios de calendario, por favor visite www.montgomeryschoolsmd.org/calendar/proposed-calendar-2020-21.aspx.

El borrador de todos los escenarios para el calendario incluye: 182 días lectivos para los estudiantes; Vacaciones de primavera completas; Un día profesional completo para calificaciones y planificación al final del primer, segundo y tercer trimestre; y Posibles días de recuperación de días de instrucción tanto durante el ciclo escolar como extendiendo el ciclo escolar. El Consejo solicita opiniones sobre las opciones de calendario en la casilla de comentarios de la página web. El Consejo de Educación tiene programado adoptar un calendario final más adelante en este año.
