

May 2017

5th Grade Cougar News

Technology Focus:

www.multiplication.com is a great way for students to practice their multiplication facts at home. Students are expected to know their facts automatically by 5th grade. This is a tool that can help them.

Golden Hawk Night

This event is just for upcoming 6th grade students. It is a great way for parents and students to meet staff and new classmates. Flyers went home the week of April 25th.

Important Dates and Upcoming Events:

- Week of May 8th: Book Fair
- 5/18 – Golden Hawk Night at RCMS 6:30 – 8:30.
- 5/19 – Movie Night 6:30 – 7:45

PARCC Testing Schedule

- 5/1, 5/3, 5/8 and 5/12 – ELA
- 5/16-5/19 – Math
- Tests are in the morning, so please make sure students are on time.

May Academic Focus:

Reading: Character analysis, speaker's point of view and how chapters work together in the text to enhance meaning.

Math: Line plots, decimal multiplication and division, and locating points on a coordinate grid.

Science: Plant and Animal Cells and the organelles that make up each.

Social Studies: Wrapping up Economic Unit

Writing: Research paper on careers of the future.

HOMEWORK:

- Read at least 20 minutes each night. Log in your Reading on Reading Rewards.
- Practice Multiplication and Division Facts.

Thinking and Academic Skill

Effort/Motivation/Persistence – Accomplish difficult tasks, set goals and know how to accomplish them. Never give up and ask for help when learning is difficult.

