Opinion Statement (with hook)

Can you imagine losing your brother, meeting a ghost, meeting a vampire, mummy,
and skeleton, and a dinosaur in one day?
Read to find out more!

How to hook your reader:

- Ask your reader a question (Do you like...? Have you ever wanted to...? Can you imagine...? Did you know...?)
- Start with a quote or cool fact from the book
- Drop your reader into the action of the story
- Use onomatopoeia (Boom!, Honk Honk!, Boing!, Click!)

Possible reasons for liking a book:

- I enjoyed the author's craft (the way the writer wrote the story)
- I can relate to characters
- I enjoyed the illustrations
- I can connect to content (I liked the events in the story)
- The story had an emotional impact (ex. humorous, suspenseful, imaginative)
- I enjoyed the theme (the lesson, message, or moral of the story)

Reason #1 with evidence

I like this book because of the villains like how the mummy and the skeleton and the vampire say we're gonna be dead. we're already dead more dead.

Reason #2 with evidence

I also like this book because it has adventures.
such as when Kyle lost his brother, or when Kyle saw monsters, and last but not least when Kyle saw a dinosaur.

Conclusion (with recommendation)

In conclusion, you should get this book
if you like humor and action
