Trustworthiness	Tell the truth.	Be where you are supposed to be.	Stay in your assigned space.	Use the restroom, wash your hands, and return to class.	Walk straight into school in the morning and home in the afternoon.	Work on what you are supposed to be doing.	Walk to where you are supposed to be.	Touch and eat only your own lunch.	Use playground equipment safely. Put it away when done.
Respect	Treat others the way you want to be treated.	Follow directions from adults and patrols.	Enter and exit quietly.	Put paper towels in the garbage.	Keep hands, feet, and objects to yourself.	Listen when others are speaking.	Walk quietly and stay to the right of the hallway.	Speak at a level 1 or level 2 voice level	Play only school approved game.
Responsibility	Follow expected behaviors.	Be on time.	Clap and laugh at appropriate times.	Keep water and soap in the sink only.	Use quiet voices so the bus driver can focus on driving safely.	Complete your work giving your best effort.	Stop at areas where there is a stop sign when walking with a class.	Clean up after yourself. Recycle and throw away trash.	Stay on the playground or in the classroom. Avoid wandering off.
Fairness	Play by the rules.	Enter and exit doorways when it is your turn.	Sit on your bottom so others can see.	Be quick in case a classmate needs to use the restroom.	Share seats so everyone has a place to sit.	Take turns when working with classmates.	Stay in your place in line and avoid getting in front of others.	Raise your hand when you need something.	Play by the rules of the game.
Caring	Use kind words. Keep hands, feet, and objects to self.	Help new students get to where they are supposed to be.	Listen to the speaker.	Respect others' privacy.	All belongings stay in your backpack.	Explain directions to classmates who are not sure what to do.	If someone needs help, assist them or get an adult.	Make sure everyone has someone to talk to at the table.	Make sure everyone has someone to play with at recess.
Citizenship	Be a positive role model.	Help others get to where they are supposed to be.	Stay quiet so everyone can hear the speaker or performance.	Flush the toilet.	Pick up items you drop to keep the bus clean.	Do your best and be willing to work with others.	Walk quietly with your hands and feet to yourself.	Walk silently when entering and exiting the cafeteria.	Line up quickly and quietly when recess is over.
