

Career Partnership Day 2018 – A Sampling of Feedback

“I liked really liked shadowing with a pediatrician to see her interactions with the patients.”

“I would consider a pursuing a career in the hospitality industry because of the tightly-knit community within the business. I love the culture.”

“I loved seeing the daily life of someone in a workplace I might be interested in. It might be me in the future!”

“I really liked watching patient interaction and how important it is to be patient. Nurses are always busy.”

“After learning more about what financial planners do, I have found I like the idea of pursuing this career path even more.”

“I was able to see how many jobs there are for the career path I want.”

“I liked speaking to different people in very different areas of expertise.”

“I liked having the opportunity to learn from someone who has the same career as my interest!”

“I liked getting to talk to different employees about their career paths and how they got to where they are.”

“We got to see a bunch of people who all had different experiences but worked really well together.”

“I really liked how inviting my host was, and how well prepared they were for me. I was able to interact with patients (physical therapy) and ask many questions.”

“I loved how most of the headquarters is led by locals. Makes me confident I can be one of them!”

“I greatly enjoyed the opportunity to speak with lawyers closer to my age range and get their perspectives.”

“I liked seeing what it’s like to work at a magazine. I’m feeling more confident in my decision to be a writer.”

“I noticed a bond between the employees. You could tell they really enjoy what they do, and are very professional.”

“I liked to see people at work and learn what education or experience they needed.”

“I really enjoyed the personal aspect with patients and helping people.”

“I loved the ability to learn about different departments or sections of a business, and how our Marriott guides were able to make connections with me and give ideas for my future.”

“I adored speaking to the scientists about their research and lives.”

“It was really helpful to see different jobs and what their daily lives are like.”

“I loved to see how it feels to work at a job they enjoyed with people they loved working with.”

“I hope wherever I end up, I have people at work who feel like a support system.”

“Visiting a hotel, I realize how much a people person I am. I loved the atmosphere and learning some aspects of how a hotel functions.”