- Welcome to our celebration of Native American Month. We have a little known Native American fact for you. Do you know about the Native American hoop dance? The hoop is symbolic of "the never-ending circle of life." It has no beginning and no end. Many tribal groups across North America used the hoop in traditional healing ceremonies, and the hoop's significance enhances the embodiment of healing ceremonies. That was our moment in Native American History.
- If you need information, email nwjagtv@gmail.com.
- A special congratulations to all our Jag Student-Athletes for their performances in playoff contests this past week.
- Our Boys and Girls Cross-Country Teams had impressive showings and while our football team lost their playoff match against Quince Orchard, it was a hard-fought battle and an impressive season overall. We are all so #JagProud to all of you.
- Winter sports are almost here! Most teams start tryouts starting tomorrow. Check the list outside Mrs. Tyler's office by the gym to make sure you are approved for tryouts. If your name is not on that list, you are not registered! See Mrs. Tyler with any questions. Tryout times and locations are posted outside Mrs. Tyler's office.
- Anyone interested in playing Bocce this winter, Mr. Maradei will be holding a meeting in room 181 next Tuesday during lunch. See Mr. Maradei in advance in room 181 or email him if you cannot attend.
- Tomorrow there will be a unicef club meeting at lunch in room 217. If you want to help UNICEF and become part of something meaningful worldwide, all are welcome to come.
- Attention all potential graduates or the class of 2023: A representative from Jostens will be onsite tomorrow during lunch to accept cash or check orders for your cap and gown package purchases. This will be the first of four opportunities to purchase your cap and gown package using cash or check. Otherwise, cap and gowns must be purchased directly from the Jostens website. You can find ordering information on the Northwest website in the Senior Class Resource Bank, in the QR code seen here, and posted around Northwest on the blue Senior Class Information QR codes. Prices increase on January 27th, and all orders are due by February 27th.
