

Announcements 11-9-22

- Welcome to our celebration of Native American Month. The Creek Indians were a confederation of tribes that belonged primarily to the Muskogean linguistic group, which also included the Choctaws and Chickasaws. The Muskogees were the dominant tribe of the confederacy, but all members eventually came to be known collectively as Creek Indians. That was our moment in Native American History.
- This week college visits from Montgomery College Montgomery Scholars Information Session today at 10am, and at 1pm from Bryant University. Tomorrow at 8am we have the University of Scranton, at 9am, University of California - Berkeley, at 10am Moravian University and at 1pm Mount St. Mary's University. We will complete the week of visits with a virtual visit on Nov. 11 from Pace University (NYC), and Wilson College at 1pm. Remember Naviance registration for all visits is required. There will be a QR-Code on display in the College Career Information Center to scan for attendance. Links for the virtual visits have been emailed to juniors and seniors!
- Northwest Drama wants you to know that auditions for Northwest Got Talent are approaching. Winners in each category will get $100. See any drama student director for details or see their display in the auditorium lobby.
- Join ACT-SO virtual Arts Master Class this coming Sunday at 7pm via zoom. See Ms. Greenlee in the media center for details and info.