College Conversations: Connecting Students of Color to Top Colleges

July 22, 2022 6:30–8:30 p.m.

The event is sponsored by MCPS, the NAACP Parents' Council and Johns Hopkins University. It is geared toward rising seniors of color and their families.

This event will feature college admissions officers discussing financial aid, scholarships and the college admissions process. Other breakout sessions will highlight the college experience, writing college essays and others. Representatives from more than 25 colleges and universities are planning to attend.

This event will be held on Zoom. YOU MUST Register at Register to attend.
