Student Educational Records

| Schools must provide you the opportunity to inspect student educational records within 45 days of receipt of such request. They also must provide you an opportunity to ask for amendments or to request an opportunity to challenge the content of the record if you believe it contains information that is inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of the student’s rights to privacy. (Grades are not subject to challenge.) |
| If requested, schools may disclose educational records without consent to another school in which a student seeks to enroll. |

*These rights are spelled out in the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 and can be referenced in 99.7 of 34 CFPP, Part 99.

Additional information may be found in MCPS Regulation JOA-RA, Student Records, available on the MCPS website or at your local school.
